

Today's Tarot Message

Lori Lytle

Inner Goddess Tarot

Quick (yet deep) insight into the meanings and messages of the Major Arcana cards to help you make the most of every day

Today's Tarot Message with Inner Goddess Tarot

Looking for a message to inspire and guide you through your day?

Need quick (yet deep) insight into a particular Tarot card?

Today's Tarot Messages will give you a sense of the flavor and meaning of the card, plus insight into how to smoothly navigate and make the most of your day.

This is just a brief snapshot of the card, but it will give you valuable info and prompts for further study and contemplation.

You can use these messages in many ways, but here are a few suggestions:

- Separate the Major Arcana from your deck, shuffle, and choose one. This is your personal message for the day, giving you some insight into the energy around you, what you may expect to unfold and how to navigate it.
- Actively choose a Major Arcana card to represent what you hope to achieve, manifest or embody during the day. Carry the card and the message with you to inspire and motivate you as you go about your day.
- Self-Study: choose one of the Major Arcana each day, read the Today's Tarot Message to get to know the card, meditate with it, sleep with it under your pillow, carry it around with you...anything goes!
- Don't have a Tarot deck (yet)? Go to the Table of Contents page, close your eyes, take a deep breath...let your cursor move over the list, stop and click when the moment feels right. This is your message for the day.

TODAY'S TAROT MESSAGES: THE MAJOR ARCANA

0 - The Fool

New beginnings, pure potential, get ready to embark on a wonderful adventure. Now is the time to take that leap of faith, to start something new with optimism and faith in yourself. Travel light, no over-thinking, no fear, off you go!

I - The Magician

Focus your will, now is the time to take that idea and make into something tangible and real. What are you waiting for? You have all the skills and experience that you need to achieve your goal, just get out there and do it! Act with clear intention and you will manifest what you desire. Pull a rabbit out of a hat today.

II - The High Priestess

Beautiful mysteries surround us, there is so much more beyond what we can see on the surface. The answers that you need are within your own heart and mind, be calm, be still, hear the message that your inner voice is sending to you. Your intuition is strong today, listen to it and trust it. On a practical note, keep your cards close to your chest today, you don't need to reveal those mysteries that you discover within.

III – The Empress

Embrace your own personal power and beauty, radiate confidence and be proud of who you are. You have so much compassion and love in your heart, share your gifts with others, while taking care of yourself and keeping what you need. This is a good time to get out into nature, and to appreciate the splendor around you, to say thank you to Mother Earth for all she provides. Do something that makes you feel good today, that ignites your passion!

IV – The Emperor

The Emperor has power, authority, he demands respect and obedience. In return, he offers protection, security, and stable society. How does his energy sit with you? If you are the Emperor, are you wielding your power with fairness and integrity? If you are his subject, are you able to work within the boundaries he has created? Keep in mind that you may play both of these roles in different areas of your life.

V – The Hierophant

The Hierophant represents tradition, conventional values and established rules. When he appears, you may be feeling both the support and strain of living or working in this kind of structured environment. Tradition and time honoured practices have their benefits, but it will also serve you well to listen to and trust your own instincts when you feel a pull to do so. Find balance and freedom with the structure. As an aside, you may find yourself increasingly taking on the role of mentor or teacher in the coming months.

VI – The Lovers

The Lovers card depicts deep, mature love...a real connection between two people, or, when you are able to find real love for all of the many parts of yourself. This card encourages you to recognize and value the power of love in your life, whether it is romantic love, deep friendship, or the love you feel for your own dear self. On a different note, if you need to make a choice or a decision, be sure to stick to your own ethics and moral high ground, even if someone is urging you to take the low or easier road.

VII – The Chariot

You've learned a lot about yourself, your strengths and your limitations, and you're feeling the urge to strike out on your own, to make your place in the wider world. This is your time, take the reins of your life and move forward strongly in the direction of your goals. Be clear about what you want, focus your willpower and use discipline to achieve it. Don't lose sight of the end game...there is no doubt that you are about to start moving, make sure that you aren't just spinning your wheels.

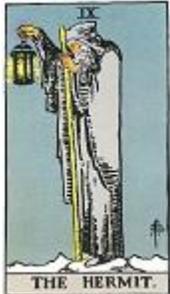

VIII – Strength

You may have to tackle some lions along your path, but you have the inner strength, compassion and poise to overcome all challenges. You know you are strong, but you have even deeper and more formidable inner resources that you can draw upon when necessary. Aggression or an in-your-face attitude won't serve you well in these times, act from a place of patience and empathy and you'll be amazed at the results.

IX – The Hermit

It's natural to feel introspective at pivotal times...today, you may feel the urge to withdraw, spend some time on your own, and reflect. If you are struggling to find the answer to an issue that's been on your mind, look for it within. You may find yourself in the role of mentor or teacher today; share your own wisdom and experience to help others find their answers as well.

X – The Wheel of Fortune

Life is change, sometimes you're up, sometimes you're down...if you're down now, there's nowhere to go but up. If you're facing a challenge, look for the bigger picture and have faith that things will flow as they should. There is a feeling here of what goes around comes around, hard work you did in the past will start to pay off now. An opportunity could be coming your way today, don't miss it, it's a limited time offer.

XI - Justice

A weighty feeling of responsibility, of now starting to see the results of decisions that you made and actions that you took in the past, both good and bad. Be honest with yourself, assess your current situation and see if any adjustments need to be made on your path. If you need to make an important decision today, consider the pros and cons carefully and impartially before you make your move.

XII – The Hanged Man

Feeling hung up? Blocked? Don't waste your energy trying to bulldoze ahead, there are forces at work that you just can't fight today. Wait and see, look at things from a different perspective, and use this delay to think about any adjustments that need to be made. Be serene, go with the flow.

XIII - Death

Don't fear this card...it brings transformation, new vitality and change. Something is ending, clearing to make room for the start of something new. The process itself is difficult, it can touch you deep at your core, but once you've been able to let go of what's not working and understand what your real priorities are, you will feel a new level of freedom. Shed your skin, be reborn.

XIV – Temperance

Balance and moderation in all things will serve you well today. Seek out your calm centre, act deliberately and with patience, access your inner peace. You have the ability to bring harmony to a situation; you are the force that brings people or opposing ideas together to find a solution that is satisfactory to everyone.

XV - The Devil

If you are in an unhealthy situation, now is the time to start getting yourself out. You may feel powerless to break free, but that is not the case. If you are stuck in a place of negativity, fear or obsession, recognize it, and take steps to move in a more positive direction. You don't have to play the role of the victim, you have the power to walk away from what isn't serving you well.

XVI - The Tower

Where in your life is the pressure building? Someone or something may be about ready to BLOW. Be alert for the unexpected, a situation may not be as solid as you think. The Tower often brings a time of turmoil, disruption, regular life turned upside down, egos toppled...but its very good at getting rid of what's not working. Once the dust settles, it's a good time to start building something real.

XVII - The Star

A gentle healing energy, the calm after the storm. If you have been going through a difficult time, let the light of the Star rekindle a feeling of hope, faith and optimism. Open your heart and share your gifts generously. Be the star of your own life story, let your own true light shine. Release your fears and doubts, you are on the right track.

XVIII – The Moon

Be open to whatever your subconscious has to say to you today, spend some time contemplating any dreams that you had last night that are still lingering. If you find yourself in a confusing situation, where you're not quite sure what is real or what is true, trust your intuition, it won't lead you astray.

XIX – The Sun

The Sun brings joy, confidence and energy. Enjoy it, radiate positivity today, shine your light and love on those around you. You may find yourself in the spotlight today, enjoying long overdue recognition. Take a moment to express gratitude for the beauty and magic in your life. A resounding YES.

XX – Judgement

Feeling listless? This is your wake up call. Judgement urges you to identify your true calling, to follow your passion. Also, this is a good day for some personal reflection. It's time to accept yourself as you are, to let the past be past, and move forward with a feeling of lightness and rejuvenation. A major project will soon reach completion, a milestone will soon be reached.

XXI – The World

Things are coming full circle, the many aspects of your life are coming together in beautiful harmony. You are nearing a time of transformation, as this cycle ends, another is about to begin. Pause, appreciate and celebrate your accomplishments, and get ready to move forward. Know yourself, use this knowledge to create a structure for yourself that provides support and security, and yet still allows you to dance freely within it.

Thank you for coming on this journey with me, I hope the cards bring you clarity, empowerment, and inspiration. I take the time to pull at least one card for myself every day, and I'm constantly amazed at the insights they provoke (sometimes you have to laugh, the message is just so blunt and right ON!). I wish you all the best and a joyful adventure with the cards!

A little bit about me...Lori Lytle,
founder of Inner Goddess Tarot

For me, Tarot is all about PERSONAL EMPOWERMENT.

I believe the cards are a powerful tool for inner growth and transformation. They can give us confirmation that we are on the right track, or guide us when we have lost our way.

Using these extraordinary cards, I help you to connect with your own Inner Goddess, to hear and trust your own inner voice, to make decisions without anxiety and to live a happy and confident life.
